ODDIE THE MAN.

It is indeed gratifying that in almost every county in the state the old-line republicans are commencing to show signs of interest in the approaching campaign. Everywhere are heard mutterings against the policy being pursued by "republicans for revenue only," and if the movement continues to develop there is hope that the party nominees will be men of the people's choosing.

On very good authority we learn that T. L. Oddie is an aspirant for the gubernatorial nomination. As he belongs to that class of men, who, in the face of every hardship and discouragement, conquered the desert and rejuvenated Nevada, we have hopes that he will be successful. He is persevering and independent, and he has the confidence of the people. We do not doubt that other independent seekers for political preferment will soon be heard from.

These exhibitions of restlessness mean simply that here, as elsewhere in the United States, the rank and file of the party are beginning to think for themselves. And when we, in Nevada, awaken to a full realization of the situation, we will resent, in no uncertain fashion, the methods of the dominant regime in the party. It is not too much to hope that we will rise in our might and clean out the party's Augean stable at Carson and Reno.—Gardnerville Record-Courier.

QUEEN ANNIE WILL REIGN SUPREME
ON THE FOURTHALL TONOPAH WILL PAY HOM-
AGE TO CHARMING GOD-
DESS OF LIBERTY.

At the conclusion of one of the most exciting voting contests for Goddess of Liberty that has ever been held in Tonopah, Miss Annie Murphy was elected to serve in that capacity at the conclusion of the counting of the votes last night. All yesterday the admirers and supporters of the different candidates were in evidence and large bunches of ballots were cast throughout the day and evening. When the votes had been gathered and segregated it could be seen that the choice lay between Miss Sada McFadden and Miss Murphy and the final count, which was completed shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, made known the decision. Miss Murphy's majority over Miss McFadden was 811 votes.

The contest committee announced that the goddess is requested to call upon them by 10 o'clock this morning, so that arrangements can be made for the royal robes to be worn during the parade. The four highest candidates will be requested to serve as maids and they also are asked to meet with the committee at the same time.

The Famous Shoe store announced yesterday that a pair of the most expensive shoes in their shop that would match the costume would be presented to the fortunate young lady.

The standing of the contestants follows:

Annie Murphy—32,844.
Sada McFadden—32,033.
Amelia Van Patten—11,018.
Gussie Anderson—9193.
Evelyn Collins—2138.
Inez Critchfield—1095.

LESLIE SMALL OUT
FOR STATE SENATOR

R. Leslie Small, of Carson City, who a year ago was on this paper, has announced that he is out for the office of state senator on the democratic ticket and seeks the nomination from the voters of Ormsby county. Mr. Small is qualified in every way for the office he desires and undoubtedly will be elected. The following is from the Carson News:

R. Leslie Small has set his cap for the position of state senator and states that he intends to make a hard fight for the position. He has a platform of his own upon which he intends to run, combining with the regular democratic platform several issues that are dear to him. He has served two terms in the legislature, representing both Churchill and Ormsby counties. He is a bright and able young man and would be a strong factor upon the democratic ticket if nominated.

NEW ALUMINUM
CURTAIN IS USED
AT THE BUTLERPROVES A REAL IMPROVEMENT
IN REPRODUCTION OF PICTURES.

One of the best shows of the season was shown at the Butler yesterday and the usual big crowd was in attendance. The new aluminum curtain was used last night and the improvement was far ahead of expectations.

"Baby Miller" made the biggest hit of her engagement in her toe dance. This little artist is a wonder, and one must see her to appreciate her. She will appear at the first show of today's matinee and all three evening shows. The music by Professor Marino on the violin and Miss Anderson on the piano is one of the big hits. Today the following pictures will be shown: "Milk Industry in the Alps," educational; "A Temptuous Adventure," comedy; "The Castaways," drama, and a big feature Biograph drama entitled, "A Victim of Jealousy." This subject shows the unreasonableness of a person obsessed with what might be termed, disease. The husband's irrational jealousy makes him suspicious of every attention bestowed upon his young wife and makes her life as well as his own almost unendurable. This is a very interesting subject and must be seen to be appreciated.

ONLY ONE JAILER
AT COUNTY JAIL

Yesterday, in pursuance to the recommendation of the grand jury, two of the jailors at the county jail were let out and from now on the prisoners will be looked after by one jailor and the sheriff. This will work quite a hardship on the sheriff's office but will effect the end desired by the inquisitorial body.
